

Patient's Name:	DOB:	Referring Physician
Patient's Address:		Physician's Phone #:
Patient's Phone #:		Fax #:

Reason for referral: _____

Diagnosis	Required Imaging	Required Lab Testing
Gout- General	Plain X-Ray to rule out other potential disease states. Early stages of Gout can be Dx clinically.	neoplasm or infection is in the differential diagnosis for soft tissue tophi. Uric acid testing or evaluation of urate crystals
Pseudogout/chondrocalcinosis (CPPD)	Plain X-Ray
Infection/Septic Joint	Plain X-Ray are negative for another disease state and are positive for osteomyelitis
Septic Joint	Plain X-Ray of the effected joint	CBC ESR CRP Analysis of joint fluid
Osteoarthritis	Plain X-Ray
RA and Inflammatory Arthritis	Plain X-Ray and Physical Exam	Lyme titers Joint Fluid Analysis Anti-CCP RA Factor CRP ANA ESR
Pigmented Villonodular Synovitis	Plain X Ray

Note to referring providers: Please attach above records for the corresponding diagnosis. Imaging should be put on disc for patient to bring or pushed over via PAC system.

Other Comments: _____

Referring Provider Signature: _____ Date: _____